MEDIA RELEASE

The Millennium BullionFund is now called BMG BullionFund

Name change reflects growth of management group

TORONTO, March 27, 2008 – Fund manager Bullion Management Services Inc., a BMG Company, announced that it has changed the name of its mutual fund, The Millennium BullionFund™, to BMG BullionFund™.

BMG BullionFund™ is Canada's first and only open-end Mutual Fund Trust that invests directly in equal proportions of unencumbered, fully allocated gold, silver and platinum bullion and qualifies for all registered plans.

"BMG BullionFund is designed to provide a simple and affordable way for investors to add the wealth preservation and diversification advantages of bullion – gold, silver and platinum – to their portfolios," said Nick Barisheff, president of Bullion Management Group. "The name change makes it easier to for investors to make the link between the Fund and the organization behind it, Bullion Management Group Inc."

Over the past year, net assets of BMG BullionFund™ have grown more than 78% to CDN$185,724,132.57 as of March 18, 2008, reflecting Canadians' growing interest in the precious metals component of their portfolios.

BMG BullionFund™ is an integral part of one of the world's fastest-growing precious metals bullion investment companies, Bullion Management Group Inc.

The investment objective of BMG BullionFund™ is to provide a secure, convenient, low-cost, low-risk alternative for investors seeking the benefits of capital preservation, appreciation, portfolio diversification and protection that only bullion ownership offers.

BMG BullionFund™ symbol is: MBF100
